Group Health Credit Union Announces Robert Schweigert as Vice President and Chief Lending Officer

(Seattle, WA) – Robert Schweigert has been named Vice President and Chief Lending Officer of the $252 million Group Health Credit Union (GHCU). Schweigert comes to GHCU from Wells Fargo. Prior to Wells Fargo, Schweigert served as the Vice President of Lending at Washington’s Credit Union for ten years.

“We are pleased to have Robert Schweigert join Group Health Credit Union as the Vice President and Chief Lending Officer, stated John Iglesias, Group Health Credit Union President and CEO. “Robert comes to us with an extensive background in all types of lending, including commercial, mortgage and consumer lending. His leadership qualities and depth of knowledge in the industry make him a significant asset to our organization.”

In regard to his appointment as Vice President and Chief Lending Officer, Schweigert stated: “It is an honor to join Group Health Credit Union, a sound credit union that has been serving the financial needs of members for 60 years. Having spent many years in the lending industry, I see a significant opportunity to grow and strengthen GHCU’s already solid lending portfolio to offer loan options to an even greater number of individuals.”

Schweigert assumed his position with GHCU on Tuesday, April 8.
